Rau's IAS Study Circle Expresses Deep Condolences and Commits Full Cooperation in Ongoing Investigation

In light of the recent tragic event involving the students of Rajendra Nagar Rau's IAS Study Circle, Rau's IAS Study Circle extends its heartfelt condolences to the families and loved ones of the deceased students, Ms. Tanya Soni, Mr. Nivin Dalwin, and Ms. Shreya Yadav. Our thoughts are profoundly with the families during this incredibly difficult time.

We are deeply saddened by the loss of these promising young individuals who were preparing to serve our nation with dedication and commitment. This tragedy has touched us all, and we recognize the profound impact it has had on their families, friends, and the broader community.

RAU's IAS Study Circle is fully committed to supporting the ongoing investigations into this tragic incident. We are cooperating fully with the relevant authorities and agencies to ensure that all necessary information is provided and that the investigation proceeds with the utmost diligence. We are dedicated to assisting in any way possible to uncover the truth and ensure accountability.

As we await further developments, we remain steadfast in our commitment to providing support to the affected families and addressing any concerns that arise from this incident. We urge everyone to respect the privacy of the families during this time of grief and to extend their support and compassion in any way possible.

Our organization stands united in honoring the memory of Ms. Tanya Soni, Mr. Nivin Dalwin, and Ms. Shreya Yadav. Their aspirations and dreams will be remembered, and their loss will be felt deeply by all who knew them.
